

DAY, DECEMBER 7, 1900.
Boys' Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

Books
Sale

The Times

LOS ANGELES

With Dates of Events.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—H. C. WYATT & CO., Managers.
TONIGHT, SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY NIGHTS.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.
"The Duke's Daughter" by the BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

RATIFY TREATY AND PASS CANAL BILL.

Two Actions Which May Soon be Expected of the Senate—Talk in Executive Session.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]

The Senate spent the entire day today, in secret session, considering the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. The only question discussed during the entire day was the amendment proposed by the late Senator Davis, giving to the United States the right to fortify the canal after building it.

Senator Morgan of Alabama, chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canal, said today, in the course of his speech upon the treaty, during which he opposed the Davis amendment, that the adoption of this amendment to the treaty and the construction of the canal under the treaty as amended, might mean war with some European power that would object to the United States placing itself in such a powerful position regarding the canal as the fortifications would give it. This was strong language, coming from so conservative a man as Morgan. He explained that if the United States builds and fortifies the canal, it will be violating not only the treaties with England, but with other countries.

"But," added Senator Morgan, "we shall be justified in building that canal, even at the expense of war with any European power."

There was a slight change in sentiment in the Senate today respecting the Davis amendment. It heretofore has been a toss-up between whether the amendment would be adopted or not, with chances apparently drawn. Today the sentiment shifted, and tonight some experts on Senatorial opinion believe that the treaty will never be ratified without the adoption of the Davis amendment, or one like it. That is merely a matter of opinion. The claim is made that the Southern Senators never will vote for the treaty unless the amendment is put on, and it cannot be adopted without their votes, because a two-thirds vote is needed.

England is making some move about the amendment. She does not like it, and when Lord Pauncefote spent upward of two hours with Secretary of State Hay today, the surmise went out that the British government had made or was about to make a formal protest against the amendment. If such a protest is in contemplation it is carefully guarded. However, there is one bright ray of hope in this muddle: Everybody agrees that, either with or without the amendment, the treaty will be ratified soon and the Canal Bill will pass.

News Index to the Times This Morning

1. Treaty and Canal Bill.
 2. Kruger Arrives at The Hague.
 3. Fruit Combination Launched.
 4. Castellanes' Counter Affidavits.
 5. Sloan Ruled Off in England.
 6. Texas Telegraphers on Strike.
 7. Dorothy Drew Sues Jeffries.
 8. Liners: Classified Advertising.
 9. The Times Home Study Circle.
 10. Our Daily Story.
 11. Editorials: Editorial Paragraphs.
 12. Queen's Speech to Parliament.
 13. Illinois Day Celebration.
 14. The Public Service: Official Deaths.
 15. In the Oil Fields.
 16. Farm, Orchard, Rancho, Stockyard.
 17. Real Estate Movements.
 18. Financial and Commercial.
 19. Local Produce Markets.
 20. Stock Quotations on Eastern Boards.
 21. Southern California by Towns.
 22. Personal Mention: Men and Women.
 23. City in Brief.
 24. News and Business.
 25. Record of Marriages and Deaths.
- CLASSIFIED NEWS SYNOPSIS.
- THE CITY. Councilman-elect Walker renounced... Illinois Society's good time... Boilers at Sherman all right, according to testimony at Coroner's inquest... Salt Lake line engineers finished... Laundry deal results in judgment against J. W. McCauley... Hobo wants to see Great Register... Wire cutting stopped... Sloping the side of the First-street cut... Ross damage case submitted... Annual report of street department... Where is the park board?... Third-street tunnel nearly finished... Oil operators watching southwest field... Ex-wife fined for disturbing wife's peace... Santa Fe switchman fatally crushed... Southern California Medical Society concludes good meeting... Local sportspink affairs... University Club discusses the Prof. Ross incident.
- SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Pasadena School Club discusses interesting subject... Slight tide damage at Terminal Island... Steamer fireman slashed by Mexicans at San Pedro... Rig demolished by train at Alhambra... Happy walnut growers meet at Rivera... Legislators and trustees visit Whittier Reform School... Non-irrigating pipe line for Covina... San Diego county fire disaster... Pomona people fighting snail... Pomona lodge officers elected... Mrs. M. M. Smith, Riverside's public librarian, dead... Fatal fall near North Cucamonga.
- PACIFIC COAST. Gigantic plan for the combination of all fruit interests launched in convention... Highlander war at Chico... Healer crazing the Papagoes... Verdict on Thanksgiving disaster... Seattle man's murderous streak.
- CHINA. British skeptical of agreement... Diplomats exchange opinions with Hay... Expeditions create bad impression... Behanding of innocent Chinese.
- FOREIGN. By Cable. Kruger gives great reception at The Hague. Queen's speech read in Parliament. Desperate convicts jump overboard. Castellanes' sensational allegations. Invasion talk excites British press. Pope undergoes an operation.
- WASHINGTON. Ratification of treaty and passing of Canal Bill next on the program... May's protest to State Department.
- SPORTS. Jockey Sloan ruled off and L. Reiff exonerated by English Jockey Club... Hart talks of baseball outlook. Berkeley-Columbia football game off.
- GENERAL EASTERN. Dorothy Drew sued Jeffries for breach of promise... American Federation of Labor in convention at Louisville, Ky... Street cars held up at Chicago... Railway telegraphers strike in Texas... Awful strain telling upon Miss Morrison.

MAY'S HARD-LUCK STORY.

FORCIBLY HELD IN GUATEMALA. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A MAY. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The State Department today received a formal protest from R. H. May, the American engineer, who was forcibly detained in Guatemala against his proceedings on the official there. May submitted an affidavit through S. A. Witherapoon who he names as his attorney. Witherapoon's paper is dated at New Orleans, December 4. May says that he is a citizen of Mississippi temporarily residing in Guatemala, where an arbitration has just been determined in his favor by the British Minister, Jenner. After that matter had been decided, May left Guatemala City and went to Port Antonio, where on the 28th ult., he attempted to embark on the steamer Stillwater for New Orleans. He had procured passport and had secured an attorney of record in New Orleans, William F. Fuqua, to represent him in that country in any judicial proceeding against him.

When (May) was ejected from Guatemala, October 28, by the military authorities, he owed his employer, the Northern Railroad about $12,000. Guatemalan money, which he was unable to pay, on account of the failure of the Guatemalan government to pay him $12,750 American gold, lately awarded him. Jenner, after May, and secured a writ of detention, forbidding him to leave the country until his claim was settled. May says that article 74 of the Guatemalan constitution under which a person can be prevented from leaving the country, yet that article permits departure when an attorney of record is appointed. May says that he was prepared with a formal instrument and presented it to the Guatemalan officials, showing that he had appointed such attorney in the person of William F. Fuqua.

"Notwithstanding this," said May, "I was forcibly seized, pulled off the gangway of the ship and thereby prevented from coming to the United States and am now detained at Guatemala."

The affidavit concludes with a list of witnesses to support his statements and requests the State Department to demand the release and payment to him of an indemnity of $5000 damages "for said willful and malicious wrong."

HULL IS HOPEFUL.

ARMY BILL WILL SUCCEED. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Chairman Hull of the Military Committee is hopeful of securing a final vote on the Army Bill before the close of the session of the House, and expresses no doubt of the success of the measure. Several amendments were made of dates and minor importance, chiefly in the section applying to the corps of engineers.

INAUGURAL CEREMONIES.

EDISON COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN. BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The committee having charge of the inaugural ceremonies, has accepted. Senator Haines, chairman of the Republican National Committee, previously tendered the office to Theodore W. Noyes, who was compelled to decline the honor as his duties would not permit him to devote sufficient time to the position.

NOMINATIONS SENT IN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The President today sent the following nominations to the Senate:

Dr. McMillan of New York, to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico.

Postmasters: Charles J. R. Baker, Antioch; Charles Durner, Benicia.

REPORT ON GALVESTON.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Secretary of War today sent to the Senate reports of the board of engineers concerning the effects of the Galveston storm of last summer on the jetties in the vicinity of that city. The board finds that $1,500,000 will be necessary to repair the jetties at Galveston, and that the report of the Board of Engineers River Jetties. The board places the loss of life at 5000. The damage to fortifications is placed at $92,000.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Senate today confirmed Otto H. Titman of Missouri as superintendent of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

U. S. T. S. SEN. PRESIDENT.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The President and Mrs. McKinley gave a reception this afternoon to the 1900 delegates to the W. C. T. U. convention.

IN BEHALF OF ROUTE.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Representative Burleigh of Maine today introduced a bill authorizing the appointment of Representative Boutelle of Maine, now a confirmed invalid, to the rank of captain on the retired list of the navy.

FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

CLOSING SESSION.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—SENATE.—The Senate today transacted no business of importance in open session. Throughout almost the entire afternoon it was in executive session. The Ship Subsidy Bill therefore received no consideration.

Mr. Hoar presented a resolution of the Massachusetts Legislature in favor of the purchase by the United States government of Temple Farm and Moore House at Yorktown, Va.

Mr. Martin of Virginia expressed gratification that the project had met with favor in Massachusetts, and called for a bill to be presented at an early day intended to carry out the purpose of the resolution.

Carter of Montana gave notice that, Tuesday next, he would call for the pending resolution relating to the contest of the Seneca, and called (claimed by both W. A. Clark and Martin Maginnis).

The Senate, then, at 12:40 o'clock, on motion of Mr. Lodge, went into executive session. The time was devoted to the discussion by Senator Morgan of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty which relates to the Nicaragua canal.

The Senator made it very plain in the course of his remarks that while he was not opposed to the pending treaty in any way, he was not prepared to support it.

(CONTINUED ON SECOND PAGE.)

SAYS HE'S NOT CRAZY.

Yet Smashed Four Heads With Ax.

William Seaton Tries to Kill His Family.

Shoots a Fifth Person and Fires at a Deputy.

Arrested After Getting a Couple of Bullets Himself—Says Sister Disgusted Him.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P. M. SEATTLE (Wash.), Dec. 8.—William Seaton, aged 22 years, formerly of Decatur, Ill., attempted to exterminate an entire family, his relatives, at South Park, nine miles from Seattle, this evening. With an ax he smashed the heads of four people, leaving them for dead. Then he shot one man in the back and attempted to murder a deputy sheriff. Seaton was shot twice, but not fatally, by Deputy Sheriff Kelley.

The only one killed outright was Seaton's uncle, Daniel Richards. Seaton broke in the head of his sister, Mrs. Roy Clark, but her recovery is hoped for. The other two victims were Eddie and Hazel Hagood, about 10 years old, children of a former husband of Mrs. Clark. The skulls of the little ones were crushed and then the bodies were thrown into a manger in the barn. It was supposed they were dead, but a late report from the County Hospital says that the skull of one of the children has been raised, and that there is hope of recovery. The other child will undoubtedly die.

A man named Kennedy, who got in Seaton's way after the tragedy, was shot in the back, but not seriously. Seaton fired three times at Kelley before Kelley brought him down with several bullets.

Under the belief that all his intended victims were actually dead, Seaton told the following story: "I was disgusted with the actions of my sister, and after I had knocked her in the head with an ax I came to the conclusion that I might as well make a clean sweep. I smashed the skulls of the children in the barn and threw their bodies into the manger. Returning to the house, I saw my uncle asleep on a sofa. I chopped his head almost off."

While telling his story Seaton gave no evidence of insanity. In fact, he made the specific statement that he was not insane.

AWFUL STRAIN TELLING ON MISS MORRISON.

CONTINUANCE OF HER TRIAL MAY BE NECESSARY.

Girl Slayer of Mrs. Castle Fights in Her Cell After a Trying Day in the Courtroom—State Closes and Defense Introduces Evidence.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A. M. KANSAS CITY, Dec. 8.—A special to the Star, from Eldorado, Kan., says Jesse Morrison's physical condition may make it necessary to ask a continuance of her trial for the murder of Mrs. Castle. Today Judge Redden, her leading counsel, said that it was not at all certain that the prisoner would be able to hold up under the strain. "Last night," said he, "she was feeling very badly. I do not know what may happen."

Miss Morrison fainted last night as she reached her cell after a trying day in the courtroom. She had revived somewhat this morning and was more cheerful, but was pale and weak. She had received a cluster of roses from an admirer, by express. She seemed happy over the flowers and wore them into court.

Capt. Waters, who is leading for the prosecution, is quoted as saying he expected a continuance would be asked by the defense. "It is plain," said he, "that she is getting weaker, and it is no wonder. It would not surprise me to have presented at any time a physician's certificate to the effect that Jesse Morrison could not go on with the trial."

Such a continuance would postpone the trial until January 1, and would make the selection of a new jury and a rehearing of all evidence. It is doubtful if another set of 12 men who have not formed an opinion on the case, would be found in the county.

The State this morning closed its first of the case and the defense put its first witness on the stand. The last witness for the prosecution was Dr. Fuller, one of the physicians who attended Mrs. Castle. Prosecutor Brumback then read to the jury the dying declaration as abridged by the court.

DEFENSE IS BEGUN.

The first witness for the defense was Mrs. Emma Grover, who made the official record at the preliminary hearing of the prisoner. She identified the records in which Mrs. Emma Spangler testified that she had seen nothing in the head of Jesse Morrison during the morning of the fatal quarrel. During the present trial Mrs. Spangler said she thought there was a blade in Miss Morrison's hand.

W. W. Bugbee, Mayor of Eldorado, testified to a conversation had with Mrs. Spangler in June. He said: "I asked Mrs. Spangler whether Jesse Morrison had a weapon in her hand after her fight with Mrs. Castle, and Mrs. Spangler said that she had not."

Mrs. O. R. Cline told of a party at her home last spring before the Castle wedding, at which both Miss Morrison and Miss Wiley were present. Miss Wiley had arrived first, and when Miss Morrison came in Miss Wiley did not notice her.

Miss Mamie Hughes, a friend of Mrs. Castle, told of a conversation with the latter one day in October, 1899. Witness said: "Mrs. Castle said to me, 'I saw Jesse Morrison in the back store was getting along. I said 'Who, Miss Finney?' She said laughingly, 'No, Jesse Morrison.'"

"How long was that before her marriage?" was asked.

"About eight months."

Judge Morrison, father of the defendant, gave the most important testimony during the day. He said that he saw his daughter at home shortly after the assault.

"Oh, papa, papa, why did she call me in?" he testified when she first words when she saw him.

"I fear I have killed her."

"Did she say 'murdered her'?" was asked.

"No."

While he was testifying Judge Morrison, who is 65 years old, cried freely. The defendant and her sister also cried.

TALKED AND LAUGHED LIKE AN IDIOT.

TORTURER GIBSON DENIES THE FIENDISH CRIME.

Stupidly Denies That He Killed His Baby Stepdaughter and Says He Fled Because of Excitement—No Indications of Lynching.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P. M. MAYSVILLE (Ky.), Dec. 8.—William Gibson, the man who is charged with fiendishly torturing to death with a red-hot iron his helpless two-year-old stepdaughter at Catlettsburg, Ky., two weeks ago, is safely in jail here. In an interview tonight he denied everything as to his guilt. At different times during the interview he would laugh idiotically.

When asked as to why he fled if innocent, he replied: "Well, you see this thing was hoisted about and made so much over that the people got excited, and you know how people are when they get excited."

He said he had slept in ravines, under bridges and in the underbrush for the past two weeks. His statement seemed somewhat absurd and of times his stupidity was very perceptible.

Everything is quiet here tonight and there are no indications of mob violence.

PORTO RICANS PROTEST.

Laborers Say They Are Being Shipped to Hawaii Against Their Will—in a Pitiable Condition.

EL PASO (Tex.), Dec. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A party of 111 Porto Ricans were brought in here today, en route to Hawaii, under contract to work on sugar plantations. They contend that they are being taken against their will, and are giving the guards no little trouble.

George E. Baldwin, a labor contractor, is in charge of the company, and says they have agreed to go. The Porto Ricans, however, contend they were loaded on the boat with the understanding that they were going to the opposite side of the island to work, but after six days were landed in New Orleans and rushed on a train. They learned in San Antonio where they were being taken, and since have been trying to escape.

Two escaped at Sanderson, Tex., but the county sheriff arrested and delivered them to the guards. They made attempts to escape at every stage, but were arrested. When they reached El Paso, they were arranged to appeal for aid, but were rushed out before any arrangements could be made. They are to take the steamer El Paso, which left San Antonio, Dec. 14, and for fear they will escape in San Francisco they are being held at small stations along the route, with the hope that they can be put on the steamer before they get away.

They are in a pitiable condition from a sanitary standpoint, and have been in the same cars for ten days. Two of the women have just given birth to children in the cars, and are in bad condition. Baldwin would not give any particulars of his contract, other than the fact that he had paid their fares and they would have to go.

HOW TOWNE WILL VOTE.

Will Oppose the Ship Subsidy Bill, but Will Support Temporary Increase of the Army.

DULUTH (Minn.), Dec. 8.—Charles A. Towne left Duluth today for St. Paul, where he will receive from Gov. Lind his commission as United States Senator to succeed Senator Davis, deceased. He will proceed thence at once to Washington. Before leaving he said that his time of service would, of course, be short, but he might have to vote on some important measures.

He considers the Ship Subsidy Bill to be one of the worst. His position on the standing army is that the people have voted to put down the war in the Philippines, and he will vote to give an army large enough to do that, but not for an increase for any other purpose. He does not expect to participate in debate at all during his short term.

THEIS IS GOOD AS NEW.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—The revenue cutter Theis, on which repairs costing $150,000 have just been made in this city, will have her machinery overhauled at the Mare Island navy yard and will soon go into commission. The old vessel has been largely rebuilt, and is pronounced as good as new.

(SOUTH AFRICA.) KRUGER TREKS TO THE HAGUE.

Dutch People Give Him a Great Reception.

Enthusiastic Crowds Hear Speech-making.

Chambers Extend Welcome and Offer Sympathy—Old Boer Makes Replies.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

THE HAGUE, Dec. 6.—(By Atlantic Cable.) On the opening of the second chamber today, the president, J. G. de Klerk, said:

"President Kruger arrives here today. He will take up his residence here. I take the occasion to propose that the Chamber authorize me to welcome in his name, the President to our country, and offer him an expression of our cordial sympathy."

The proposal was adopted amid cheers and applause.

Kruger arrived here today and was greeted at the station by the burgomaster and councilor. A choir of 600 men and girls chanted Psalm lxxi, verses 1 and 11. The former President and his suite then proceeded to the royal waiting-room where the burgomaster warmly welcomed them in a brief speech.

Then followed the Del Spink, president of the local South African Association, in a long welcoming address, assuring Kruger of the deep sympathy of the entire Dutch nation, "who had," he said, "too greatly, though vainly, hoped that the great powers who recently assembled at the peace conference would not have permitted that in South Africa the right of nations, the right of war, and civil law should be trampled under foot, and a little nation be sacrificed in an unequal combat in defense of its existence."

The address, after a long eulogy of the heroism of the Boers, proceeded to liken Kruger to William the Silent, who sacrificed everything for the welfare of his people, and concluded: "May your reliance on the Almighty, similar to that of the Prince of Orange, support you, Mr. President, in the arduous fight for right and liberty, and may the liberty of your nation crown your courage. Then will Great Britain have learned the lesson of how dangerous it is to attempt to throttle the independence of a free nation."

Kruger, his suite and the Reception Committee, proceeded in open carriage to the Hotel des Indes, which was repulsed to the president and his suite. There a very of ladies, headed by the Baroness Van Harten, and a choir sang a hymn. Kruger then mounted the staircase, preceded by three girls singing a hymn. On his arrival in the reception-room, the Baroness presented Kruger with a bouquet.

The first chamber has authorized its president to welcome Kruger in behalf of the house, as proof of its sympathy.

WONDERFUL RECEPTIONS.
(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

THE HAGUE, Dec. 6.—Kruger met with wonderful receptions everywhere. He reached the frontier at Zevenaar. Immense crowds gathered at all the stations, which were decorated with flags, the burgomaster made speeches and the children sang. Kruger made many replies, in most of which he represented the Transvaal as a little child whom a bad man wished to kill.

In one case he illustrated his point by drawing attention to a beautiful girl in the audience. "If that child was outraged," he said, "everybody would run to her rescue, but in my country, children are being outraged by an enemy ten times stronger than the Transvaal."

CROWD STAYED LATE.
(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

THE HAGUE, Dec. 6.—The crowds remained long in front of the hotel cheering and singing. Finally Kruger appeared on the balcony, where he remained for a few minutes. He then retired and was not seen again.

After dining privately with his grandson, Mr. Kruger went early to bed, being greatly fatigued.

Beautiful floral offerings were displayed in the hall of the hotel.

CONVOY MEETS DISASTER.
(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, Dec. 6.—(By Atlantic Cable.) The War Office has received a dispatch from Lord Kitchener dated Bloemfontein, December 6, announcing that Gen. Delarey, with 500 Boers, attacked a convoy proceeding from Pretoria to Rustenburg at Buffelspoort. December 1, burned half the convoy and killed fifteen men and wounded twenty-three, including Lieut. Baker. The Boers, the dispatch adds, suffered considerable loss, some of them being killed with case shot at fifty yards. Guns and assistance were sent from Rustenburg and Commandant Nek and the Boers were driven off.

The advice also says that Gen. Dewet also crossed the Coleroon at Kareepoort Drift, December 6, steering for Odendaal. Gen. Knox was following him, the drift was held by a detachment of the guards, and the river was flooded.

AFRIKANER CONGRESS.
SPEAKER ATTACKS MILLNER.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WORCESTER (Cape Colony), Dec. 6.—(By Atlantic Cable.) About six thousand Dutchmen assembled in the open air at the Genet and Tene plantations on the edge of the town to take part in the Afrikaner Congress. Horsemen from a radius of sixty miles had been riding in all night.

S. C. Cronwright-Schneider made a speech in which he attacked Sir Alfred Milner, the British High Commissioner and Governor of Cape Colony, saying that there would be no peace while he was Governor.

J. W. Bauer, the former Commissioner of Police of the Transvaal, spoke and guided the Congress conclusions, among which will be to select a large deputaion to visit Sir Alfred Milner and urge him to advise a cessation of hostilities and give autonomy to the republics.

More troops have arrived here. Some 1500 Canadians and Australians are encamped around the town, and the guns are in position.

After a number of violent speeches the speakers, however, repudiating all idea of rebellion, and promising a stricter limits than had been expected, three resolutions were adopted by acclamation and a delegation was appointed to submit them to Sir Alfred Milner.

The first resolution demands the termination of the war with its untold misery, protests against the devastation of the country and the burning of farms which "will leave a lasting heritage of bitterness," and declares that the independence of the republics will alone secure peace in South Africa.

The second urges the right of the colonies to make their own laws, and censures the policy of Sir Alfred Milner.

The third pledges the congress to labor "in a constitutional way" to attain the ends defined in the two preceding resolutions, and directs that the independence of the republics be submitted to the imperial government.

The congress which, it is claimed, numbered 120,000 Afrikaners, has been closed, numbers of the men leaving town immediately.

ROBERTS HONORS BOERS.
PARTING SPEECH AT DURBAN.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

DURBAN, Dec. 6.—(By South Africa Cable.) Lord Roberts, on board the Canada, has started for Cape Town. He was given an enthusiastic send-off. All the ships in the harbor were decorated with flags. Miss Roberts, who accompanied her father, has returned to Johannesburg, where she will join her mother and sister, going from there to Cape Town.

Prior to his departure, Lord Roberts made a speech, during the course of which he addressed his hearers to hold the hand of friendship to those who had been their enemies.

"When blessed peace is restored," said the field marshal, "you will tell them that we are all one people; that we have one interest and that we honor them. They have been fighting for the liberty we ourselves thought for the liberty, truth, justice and freedom, and we are prepared to extend these privileges to the English."

Value to those who have been fighting against us."

AMERICAN-BRED HORSES.
CANADIAN EXPERT'S PRAISE.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A number of Canadian horse experts, mostly veterinarians, have just passed through this city on their way to St. Louis and western points to pass on herds of horses selected by British military agents for use in the Transvaal. One of these experts, Dr. William D. Hamilton, who will examine a large number of horses at St. Louis that have been selected for the imperial police, who will patrol the Boer country, said that it was remarkable the satisfaction American-bred horses had given the British military authorities, and that he did not know where his government would have done it if it had not been for the dependence that could be put upon the American horse market, especially in "good horses are scarce in Europe and Asia," Dr. Hamilton said, and even then they could not be procured in those countries at a large number of dollars to do the work required as well as the American-bred animal.

KITCHENER STOPS PAY.
(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PRETORIA, Dec. 6.—Lord Kitchener has stopped payments to burghers for the use of their wagons until Boer resistance ceases. Civilian passenger traffic with Cape Colony is suspended and native traffic absolutely so.

PRISONER TELLS OF DEWET.
(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ALBANY, N.Y., Dec. 6.—A British patrol came into contact with Dewet's outposts, close to the place where his main force was engaged. They took one prisoner, who stated that Dewet was suffering from continual trekking, and had abandoned a Krupp gun near the south bank of the Orange River. The prisoner also stated that Dewet had been captured at all the British prisoners, with the exception of the officers.

BONI AND ANNA NEED THE MONEY.
INDIGNANT AT ATTEMPT TO CUT OFF THEIR INCOME.

Count and Countess Make Sensational Allegations in Answering Affidavits—Society Court Asked not to Grant Injunctions.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A dispatch to the World from Paris says sensational allegations are made by the Count and Countess Boni and Anna in their answering affidavits just completed and to be used in conjunction with the injunction proceedings pending in the Supreme Court of New York against George J. Edwin, Howard and Helen M. Gould, as trustees of the estate of the late Jay Gould.

The Count Boni de Castellane and the Countess Anna are intensely indignant that any attempt should be made by the American courts to deprive them of their income from the Gould estate. They retaliate by making counter charges of lack of good faith against the Countess Boni, and by attacking in articles of vertu, bric-a-brac and other luxuries, who, being no other prospect of being speedily paid the $350,000 he alleges the Castellanes owe him, assigns his claim to Anton J. Dittmar of New York and thus brought on the present legal complications.

The Count and Countess ask the court to vacate the injunction proceedings, first on the ground that the Wertheimer claims are excessive; that the Countess really owes him nothing, and that some of the extraordinarily high-priced antiques, for which thousands of gold dollars were pledged, were not what they were represented to be. In fact, the Count and Countess intimate a desire to prove that certain mirrors bought for a large sum are not genuine antiques.

Probably the strongest point in their affidavit is the allegation that the indebtedness to Wertheimer for goods actually supplied does not and never did amount to $350,000. They claim that $100,000 of his sum account is in interest, for which they disclaim all responsibility.

The Countess Anna sets up as another and distinct reason why the injunction should be vacated, the declaration that she has no property in France worth the value of the sum alleged to be owed to her by Wertheimer and all allied claims, and that they are simply able to pay.

The Count and Countess therefore supplicate the Supreme Court of the city and county of New York to impose any injunction on the continued regular income from the estate of Jay Gould.

WASHINGTON.

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE)

almost any form, his principal, if not his only concern in that connection, is for the passage of the Canal Bill, and he allowed it to be very broad in the treaty discussion because of his conviction that there were a majority of the house who would insist upon action upon the treaty as a condition precedent to the passage of the Canal Bill. For this reason, he said, he was willing to discuss the treaty, he intimated privately to other Senators, however, that he would not consent to the fixing of a time for a vote upon the treaty unless there also could be a time fixed for like action upon the Nicaragua Canal Bill.

Many members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union were in the gallery and loudly applauded the result.

Mr. Fitzgerald then proposed an amendment to the sale of liquor in the Capitol building, but Mr. Hull made the point of order that the amendment was not germane, and was sustained.

Mr. Williams of Mississippi asked unanimous consent that Mr. Fitzgerald be allowed to read his amendment "I object," said Mr. Shattuck of Ohio.

Klats of South Carolina moved to strike out the section for the retirement of Gen. Shafter as a major-general. He was, he said, opposed to the motion described in clause No. 4 of Mr. Jett of Illinois supported the motion.

Mr. Hull opposed it. He reviewed Gen. Shafter's career, and contended that the proposition to retire him as a major-general was an act of meanness.

The motion prevailed by 121 to 100. Mr. Jett then moved to strike out the name of Gen. Shafter from the list of Gen. Fitzgibbon Lee and Gen. James H. Wilson as brigadier-generals, and to prevent. There was no division on this vote.

This completed the bill, which was then reported to the House, where Mr. McMillan moved with instructions to report back a bill extending the present law to July 1, 1901.

The motion to recommit was lost by 65 to 238. Two Republicans, Mr. McMillan of Massachusetts and Mr. Mann of Illinois, voted with the majority of the opposition for this motion. Many Democrats voted with the Republicans.

A roll call was demanded for the final passage of the bill. The bill was passed by 166 to 133. The House then adjourned.

REDUCTION OF REVENUE.
MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The Ways and Means Committee met in special session at 10 o'clock this morning to consider the bill reducing the war-revenue taxes on alcohol, and a bill was framed by Republican members of the committee and introduced by Chairman Payne. There were but two absentees, Babbcock (Rep.) and Robinson (Dem.).

When the meeting closed at 12 o'clock Mr. Richardson, authorized the proposition to be taken up at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Richardson's motion on the beer tax was the first test of strength. It was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

WASHINGTON.

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE)

the rank of brigadier-general, who served during the Civil War with the rank and pay of the next higher grade was struck out.

Mr. McCormick of New Jersey, offered an amendment to make it mandatory upon the President to reduce the enlisted force of the army to 25,000 by December 1, 1902. The amendment was defeated.

Mr. Littlefield of Maine, offered the following substitute for the section providing for the sale of liquor, or in dealing in liquor, wine or any intoxicating liquors by any person in any port, anchorage, wharf, or army transport, or upon any premises used for military purposes by the United States, is hereby prohibited.

After a lengthy debate, the amendment was adopted by 169 to 51.

Many members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union were in the gallery and loudly applauded the result.

Mr. Fitzgerald then proposed an amendment to the sale of liquor in the Capitol building, but Mr. Hull made the point of order that the amendment was not germane, and was sustained.

Mr. Williams of Mississippi asked unanimous consent that Mr. Fitzgerald be allowed to read his amendment "I object," said Mr. Shattuck of Ohio.

Klats of South Carolina moved to strike out the section for the retirement of Gen. Shafter as a major-general. He was, he said, opposed to the motion described in clause No. 4 of Mr. Jett of Illinois supported the motion.

Mr. Hull opposed it. He reviewed Gen. Shafter's career, and contended that the proposition to retire him as a major-general was an act of meanness.

The motion prevailed by 121 to 100. Mr. Jett then moved to strike out the name of Gen. Shafter from the list of Gen. Fitzgibbon Lee and Gen. James H. Wilson as brigadier-generals, and to prevent. There was no division on this vote.

This completed the bill, which was then reported to the House, where Mr. McMillan moved with instructions to report back a bill extending the present law to July 1, 1901.

The motion to recommit was lost by 65 to 238. Two Republicans, Mr. McMillan of Massachusetts and Mr. Mann of Illinois, voted with the majority of the opposition for this motion. Many Democrats voted with the Republicans.

A roll call was demanded for the final passage of the bill. The bill was passed by 166 to 133. The House then adjourned.

REDUCTION OF REVENUE.
MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The Ways and Means Committee met in special session at 10 o'clock this morning to consider the bill reducing the war-revenue taxes on alcohol, and a bill was framed by Republican members of the committee and introduced by Chairman Payne. There were but two absentees, Babbcock (Rep.) and Robinson (Dem.).

When the meeting closed at 12 o'clock Mr. Richardson, authorized the proposition to be taken up at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Richardson's motion on the beer tax was the first test of strength. It was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

Mr. Underwood of Alabama presented a bill substituting for the entire war-revenue act, providing for a 3 per cent. tax on incomes over $2000.

Mr. Underwood's bill was passed by 166 to 133. This was lost, 6 to 9, on a strict party vote.

LOS ANGELES.

(CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE)

60 per cent. of the carrying capacity of commercial cargo ships, and the division of the annual award of $2,000,000 between ships on the Atlantic Ocean and those on the Pacific. As originally provided, 70 per cent. of the amount was to be expended upon the Atlantic and 30 per cent. upon the Pacific, with an additional provision that in case the entire 50 per cent. should not be utilized on the Pacific, it might be diverted to the Atlantic.

There was no reciprocal provision in the interest of Pacific ships. That is provided by today's action, the language of the provision being as follows:

Perris School Unfavorably Located—Oil, Irrigation and the Forests.

The matter of a proper water supply for the Pima Indians on the Gila River reservation in Arizona has received much attention. When the lands around the reservation were apportioned, the Indians could obtain sufficient supply of water to irrigate enough of the reservation to raise crops for their support. As the country settled up, the water in the river was appropriated by the settlers, and

In the report for last year it was pointed out that these two acts relating to right of way for canals, reservoirs, etc., together with four other acts upon the same subject, constituted a group of statutes the administration of which has been the source of much embarrassment because of the unnecessarily large number of acts and the constant amendments while they are less than the appropriation of $300,000 for the forest service, in connection with the creation and administration of forest reserves, be continued for next year, with a possible increase in case additional lands are set aside as forest reservations."

Developments of irrigation have proceeded almost wholly along the line of building small individual co-operative ditches. The opportunities for extending and multiplying these are, however, limited, as the lands most easily accessible to water supply have already passed into the possession of individuals. There remain large bodies of public land, for which water the pecuniary interest of the government in this road terminated on November 1, 1897, when the road was sold for $58,448,233, which has been paid to the United States. The Kansas Pacific was sold to the same parties who purchased the Union Pacific, on February 16, 1898, the sale realizing to the United States the sum of $5,303,000, leaving a balance due the government, on account of this road, of $5,588,900.12.

"I concur in the recommendation of the Governor that Congress make the necessary appropriation for the construction of a reservoir on the Gila River at San Carlos site, in order that the Indians on the Gila River Reservation may be supplied with adequate water for irrigation and thus be made self-supporting. This reservoir would been taken from parks. Similar characters are found within the park lines in the reservation, particularly quail, and grouse, are present, but very tame, indicating they have not been hunted.

The acting superintendent says that when the snow falls the animals are driven from the mountains into the reservation and are then hunted to diminish the

er of the Kalgan
tions projected
d impression. The hinese regarding th
more or less than v
Explanatory procl
issued in regard to order, as far as poss harmful effects."

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.

H. G. OTIS.....President and General Manager.
HARRY CHANDLER.....Vice-President and Assistant General Manager.
MARIAN OTIS-CHANDLER.....Secretary. ALBERT MCFARLAND.....Treasurer.

The Los Angeles Times

Daily, Weekly, Sunday, and Semi-Weekly.
Vol. 35, No. 4.
Founded Dec. 4, 1881.
Twentieth Year.
NEWS SERVICE.—Full reports of the new Associated Press, covering the globe; from 15,500 to 20,000 words transmitted daily over more than 2,000 miles of leased wires.
TERMS.—Daily and Sunday, including Magazine Section, 75 cents a month, or $9.00 a year; in advance. Single copies, 5 cents; Sunday, 10 cents; Magazine only, 65 cents; Weekly, 15 cents.
SUNDAY CIRCULATION.—Daily average for 1918, 18,000; for 1917, 15,000; for 1916, 12,000; for 1915, 10,000; for 1914, 8,000; for 1913, 6,000; for 1912, 4,000; for 1911, 2,000; for 1910, 1,000; for 1909, 500; for 1908, 250; for 1907, 125; for 1906, 62.5; for 1905, 31.25; for 1904, 15.625; for 1903, 7.8125; for 1902, 3.90625; for 1901, 1.953125; for 1900, .9765625; for 1899, .48828125; for 1898, .244140625; for 1897, .1220703125; for 1896, .06103515625; for 1895, .030517578125; for 1894, .0152587890625; for 1893, .00762939453125; for 1892, .003814697265625; for 1891, .0019073486328125; for 1890, .00095367431640625; for 1889, .000476837158203125; for 1888, .0002384185791015625; for 1887, .00011920928955078125; for 1886, .000059604644775390625; for 1885, .0000298023223876953125; for 1884, .00001490116119384765625; for 1883, .000007450580596923828125; for 1882, .0000037252902984619140625; for 1881, .00000186264514923095703125; for 1880, .000000931322574615478515625; for 1879, .0000004656612873077392578125; for 1878, .00000023283064365386962890625; for 1877, .000000116415321826934814453125; for 1876, .0000000582076609134674072265625; for 1875, .00000002910383045673370361328125; for 1874, .000000014551915228366851806640625; for 1873, .0000000072759576141834259033203125; for 1872, .00000000363797880709171295166015625; for 1871, .000000001818989403545856475830078125; for 1870, .0000000009094947017729282379150390625; for 1869, .00000000045474735088646411895751953125; for 1868, .000000000227373675443232059478759765625; for 1867, .0000000001136868377216160297393798828125; for 1866, .00000000005684341886080801486968994140625; for 1865, .000000000028421709430404007434844970703125; for 1864, .0000000000142108547152020037174224853515625; for 1863, .00000000000710542735760100185871124267578125; for 1862, .000000000003552713678800500929355621337890625; for 1861, .000000000001776356839400250464677810668953125; for 1860, .0000000000008881784197001252322338553344765625; for 1859, .00000000000044408920985006261611692766723828125; for 1858, .000000000000222044604925031308058463833619140625; for 1857, .0000000000001110223024625156540292319168095703125; for 1856, .00000000000005551115123128272701461595840478515625; for 1855, .0000000000000277555756156143635073079792023928125; for 1854, .00000000000001387778780780718175365398960119640625; for 1853, .000000000000006938893903903590876826994800598203125; for 1852, .0000000000000034694469519517954384134974002991015625; for 1851, .00000000000000173472347597589771720724870014955078125; for 1850, .000000000000000867361737987948858603624350074775390625; for 1849, .000000000000000433680868993974429301812175037387890625; for 1848, .000000000000000216840434496987214650906087518693953125; for 1847, .0000000000000001084202172484936073254530437593469765625; for 1846, .00000000000000005421010862424680366272652187767348828125; for 1845, .000000000000000027105054312123401831363260938836744140625; for 1844, .00000000000000001355252715606170091568163046944418203125; for 1843, .000000000000000006776263578030850457840815234722091015625; for 1842, .0000000000000000033881317890154252289204076173610455078125; for 1841, .00000000000000000169406589450771261446020380868052275390625; for 1840, .00000000000000000084703294725385630723010190434341261953125; for 1839, .000000000000000000423516473626928153615050952171706309765625; for 1838, .0000000000000000002117582368134640768075254760858531548828125; for 1837, .00000000000000000010587911840673203840376273804292657744140625; for 1836, .0000000000000000000529395592033660192018813690214632887203125; for 1835, .000000000000000000026469779601683009600940684507316441015625; for 1834, .0000000000000000000132348898008415048004720322536582205078125; for 1833, .00000000000000000000661744490042075240023601611682911025390625; for 1832, .000000000000000000003308722450210376200118008058414555628125; for 1831, .0000000000000000000016543612251051881000590040292072778125; for 1830, .00000000000000000000082718061255259405002950201460363890625; for 1829, .0000000000000000000004135903062762970250147510073018194765625; for 1828, .00000000000000000000020679515313814851250737550365090978125; for 1827, .000000000000000000000103397576569074256253687751825454890625; for 1826, .00000000000000000000005169878828453712812669387591272744765625; for 1825, .000000000000000000000025849394142268564063346937956363723828125; for 1824, .000000000000000000000012924697071134282031667346978978119140625; for 1823, .0000000000000000000000064623485355671410158336734894890595703125; for 1822, .00000000000000000000000323117426778357050791683674474452978515625; for 1821, .00000000000000000000000161558713389178525395841837237226487890625; for 1820, .00000000000000000000000080779356694589261977920918611861324403125; for 1819, .000000000000000000000000403896783472946309889604593059306722015625; for 1818, .000000000000000000000000201948391736473154944802296529653361078125; for 1817, .0000000000000000000000001009741958682365774724011482648266805390625; for 1816, .0000000000000000000000000504870979341182887362005741224133401953125; for 1815, .00000000000000000000000002524354896705914436810028706112067009765625; for 1814, .000000000000000000000000012621774483529572184050143530560335048828125; for 1813, .0000000000000000000000000063108872417647860920250717652801675244140625; for 1812, .00000000000000000000000000315544362088239304601253587876408376220703125; for 1811, .000000000000000000000000001577721810441196523006267939370418811015625; for 1810, .000000000000000000000000000788860905220598261503133969685209405578125; for 1809, .000000000000000000000000000394430452610299130751566984842604727890625; for 1808, .00000000000000000000000000019721522630514956537578349242130236394765625; for 1807, .000000000000000000000000000098607613152574777668891746210651681973828125; for 1806, .0000000000000000000000000000493038065762873888344458731053259098895703125; for 1805, .00000000000000000000000000002465190328814394441722293655266295494478515625; for 1804, .0000000000000000000000000000123259516440719722086114682763314774723828125; for 1803, .00000000000000000000000000000616297582203598610430573413816678888619140625; for 1802, .000000000000000000000000000003081487911017993052152867069083394443095703125; for 1801, .0000000000000000000000000000015407439555089965260764335345416972215478515625; for 1800, .0000000000000000000000000000007703719777544982630382167672728486123828125; for 1799, .00000000000000000000000000000038518598887724941151910838363642430619140625; for 1798, .000000000000000000000000000000192592994438624705759554191818212153095703125; for 1797, .0000000000000000000000000000000962964972193123528797770959091060765478515625; for 1796, .000000000000000000000000000000048148248609656176389888547954553038273828125; for 1795, .0000000000000000000000000000000240741243048280881949442739772765191369140625; for 1794, .00000000000000000000000000000001203706215241404409747213698863825956845703125; for 1793, .00000000000000000000000000000000601853107620702204873606849431912978273828125; for 1792, .000000000000000000000000000000003009265538103511024386834247159564891369140625; for 1791, .0000000000000000000000000000000015046327690517555121934171235782824456845703125; for 1790, .0000000000000000000000000000000007523163845258777561096708617891422842273828125; for 1789, .00000000000000000000000000000000037615819226293887805483543089457112111369140625; for 1788, .00000000000000000000000000000000018807909613146943902721771544728555556845703125; for 1787, .00000000000000000000000000000000009403954806573471951360885772364277778273828125; for 1786, .000000000000000000000000000000000047019774032867359756804428861821388891369140625; for 1785, .0000000000000000000000000000000000235098870164336798784022144309106944456845703125; for 1784, .000000000000000000000000000000000011754943508216839939201107215455347222842273828125; for 1783, .00000000000000000000000000000000000587747175410841996960055360772776111369140625; for 1782, .000000000000000000000000000000000002938735877054209984800276803863885556845703125; for 1781, .00000000000000000000000000000000000146936793852710499240013840019319427778273828125; for 1780, .0000000000000000000000000000000000007346839692635524962000692000965965911369140625; for 1779, .00000000000000000000000000000000000036734198463177624810003460004829829556845703125; for 1778, .000000000000000000000000000000000000183670992315888124050017300024149147778273828125; for 1777, .0000000000000000000000000000000000000918354961579440620250086500120745738891369140625; for 1776, .0000000000000000000000000000000000000459177480789720310125004325006037386944456845703125; for 1775, .000000000000000000000000000000000000022958874039486015062500216250301869347222842273828125; for 1774, .00000000000000000000000000000000000001147943701974300753125001081251509334691369140625; for 1773, .000000000000000000000000000000000000005739718509871503765625005406257546956845703125; for 1772, .000000000000000000000000000000000000002869859254935751882812500270312537347222842273828125; for 1771, .00000000000000000000000000000000000000143492962746787594140625001351561869347222842273828125; for 1770, .0000000000000000000000000000000000000007174648137339379707031250006757809347222842273828125; for 1769, .0000000000000000000000000000000000000003587324068669689853515625000337890469347222842273828125; for 1768, .0000000000000000000000000000000000000001793662034334844926757812500016894523469347222842273828125; for 1767, .00896831017167422463378906250000844726173469347222842273828125; for 1766, .0044841550858371122318945312500004223630869347222842273828125; for 1765, .0022420775429185561115972656250000211181543469347222842273828125; for 1764, .0011210387714592778057986328125000010559077173469347222842273828125; for 1763, .000560519385729638902899316406250000052795385869347222842273828125; for 1762, .000280259692864819451449658203125000002639769293469347222842273828125; for 1761, .00014012984643240972572242910156250000013198846469347222842273828125; for 1760, .007006492321620486286121455078125000000659942323469347222842273828125; for 1759, .003503246160810243143060727539062500000032997116173469347222842273828125; for 1758, .00175162308040512157153036376953125000000164985580869347222842273828125; for 1757, .00087581154020256078576518188476562500000008249279043469347222842273828125; for 1756, .00043790577010128039288259094238281250000000412463952173469347222842273828125; for 1755, .0002189528850506401964412954711914062500000002062319760869347222842273828125; for 1754, .000109476442525320098220647735595703125000000103115988043469347222842273828125; for 1753, .0054738221262660049110323867797851562500000005155799402173469347222842273828125; for 1752, .00273691106313300245551619338989281250000000025778997010869347222842273828125; for 1751, .00136845553156650012277580966949440312500000001288949850543469347222842273828125; for 1750, .0006842277657832500613879048347472015625000000064447492527173469347222842273828125; for 1749, .00034211388289162503069395241737360781250000000322237462635869347222842273828125; for 1748, .00017105694144581251534699762086868039062500000016111873131793469347222842273828125; for 1747, .00855284707229062576734988104343401953125000000080559365658969347222842273828125; for 1746, .0042764235361453138369494052171700976562500000004027968282948469347222842273828125; for 1745, .00213821176807265691847470260858504882812500000002013984141473469347222842273828125; for 1744, .00106910588403632845942373513042926441406250000001006992070736934722284227382

THE PUBLIC SERVICE IN THE CHOICES AND COUNTS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The annual report of the street department, showing the amount of work done on the city streets, and the expense incurred during the year, has been filed with the City Council.

The members of the park board have been missing for many months, and their official whereabouts are unknown to the citizens of the City Hall.

The Third-street tunnel is rapidly nearing completion, and the lining will be finished in about five days. The big hole will be cleared of obstructions within two weeks, according to present plans.

A. G. Lorbeer was given judgment yesterday for $200 against J. W. McCauley. Lorbeer alleged a series of guttering frauds.

W. C. Ross was in Judge Allen's court yesterday suing A. Zellerbach & Sons for $5000 damages for personal injuries.

Henry Pinther was acquitted of criminal assault by his jury yesterday. He is now on trial for a charge of similar nature.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller was fined $20 in the Police Court yesterday for disturbing the peace of the present wife of her former husband, Frank D. Haddock.

A boy of 16 and a man who went to home to see the former were among the bed-room sleepers before Justice Austin yesterday.

[AT THE CITY HALL.]

ANNUAL REPORT OF STREET DEPARTMENT.

FIRST TO BE FILED WITH THE CITY COUNCIL.

Comprehensive Review of the Street Work Done During the Year, and the Expense Incurred by the Several Branches.

In accordance with the provisions of the city charter, most of the departments of city government are now engaged in compiling their annual reports. The reports will all contain tabulated statements showing in detail the amounts allowed for running expenses for the current year, and the amounts expended to date. The charter provision requires the reports to be filed with the Council by the middle of December.

The report of the librarian, now nearly completed, will contain much interesting information about the circulation of books and the rapid growth of the library; a growth of all proportion with the accommodations and facilities afforded by the present quarters on the top floor of the city building. The recapitulation of the work done by the City Engineer's office is awaited with interest, because of the matter that has to do with the construction of the Broadway and Third-street tunnels.

The annual report of the Street Superintendent is the first to be completed and filed with the City Clerk. It shows the receipts of the street department for the year to be as follows: Bonded sewer assessments, $119,555; enforcement fees, $200,421; printing fees, $19,465; opening and widening streets, $1,967; total, $420,948.

Of the expenditures for the year, which amounted to $52,285, the most important items were: Office salaries, $13,285; labor, $39,101.25; lumber, $400.11; gravel, $1,500.

General street work done under the bond provisions of the Vrooman Act amounted to $106,922.62. This sum includes the aggregate amount of the assessment warrants on twenty-eight streets.

Thirty-one streets were improved during the year under the provisions of the street law passed by the State Legislature on March 15, 1885. The assessment warrants amounting in the aggregate to $30,919.65.

The cost of street sprinkling was $22,609. Street sweeping expenditures amounted to $11,542.55, of which the "white angels" received $12,677.25, and the machine sweepers $14,894.50.

Permits issued from the office during the year represented work as follows: Excavation, $41,738; building, $2425; sidewalk, $2572.

MISSING MANY MOONS.

WHERE IS THE PARK BOARD?

It has been weeks since the Board of Park Commissioners held a meeting, and diligent inquiry about the City Hall fails to reveal the whereabouts of the officials who hold the destinies of the parks in the hollow of their hands.

There have been many burning questions that should have been looked after by the commissioners. But the three have not been seen lately. There have been calls for the official gossamer of the "parkists," some of whom it is rumored have been seen in the realms of municipal politics.

Now that the game is up and the "opes of the faithful have been counted out, there is talk of a search for the missing commissioners. An exploration through some of the park jungles will be made if the members of the board do not put in an appearance before long.

The Hollenbeck Park bandstand cries out from its deserted site beside the lake and the red benches for Westlake Park are still reeling in gore and sticky sandalwood. The bandstand has no band. Secretary Mendall, ever faithful to his task, sits in loneliness at his desk by the window, and day by day gazes out into the emerald blue for a glimpse of the commissioners that come not.

THIRD-STREET TUNNEL.

TUNNEL NEARLY FINISHED.

The lining of the Third-street tunnel is rapidly nearing completion, and only nineteen feet yesterday separated the "header" of the east and west drift. Although both drifts have gone over 500 feet through the hill, a test made yesterday shows that the engineering work has been perfect with regard to direction, as a line drawn through the center of the west drift archway exactly met the center of a plumb bob dropped from the center of the archway in the east drift. The fact is remarkable to the ordinary mind. That men should shovel and dig more than a mile from the surface, and then a long line and then meet at its center so exactly as to split a hair appears almost wonderful to those not familiar with the science of engineering. Engineers think it nothing, and merely reply to questions with the old phrase that "mathematics is an exact science."

The lining will be complete in about five days, and the core will be removed and the sidewalk constructed within two weeks. The tunnel will be about complete in thirty days. Harry Stafford, City Engineer-elect, has asked Mr. Olmsted and Mr. Quinton to continue their supervision of the tunnel's completion, and it is probable that his arrangement will be consummated.

If this is done, Mr. Olmsted and his deputy will have an office in the Laughlin building where tunnel business will be transacted.

[AT THE COURTHOUSE.]

McCAULEY'S LURID FINANCIAL SCHEMES.

THEY ALMOST WORKED ON ONE PASADENA CITIZEN.

A. G. Lorbeer Given a Big Judgment Against the Man Who Sold His Steam Laundry for Him and Didn't Turn Over the Money.

A. G. Lorbeer, formerly of Pomona, who owned a steam laundry in Pasadena about two years ago, was given judgment against J. W. McCauley by Judge Fitzgerald yesterday for $2000. The case was tried several months ago, and in his bill of complaint, Lorbeer alleged that he had been played for a sucker by McCauley, who was accused of having advanced several plans to defraud him out of his laundry plant.

Negotiations began in March, 1888. Lorbeer placed McCauley in charge of the plant, and he represented himself to own the franchise to sell throughout certain Middle States a loan plan, which he wanted Lorbeer to take hold of and push the sale of on a percentage basis.

McCauley had been playing the same game in the Keystone Remedy Company of Chicago, making "Jaco's Kidney Cure," and he wanted Lorbeer to establish that stuff through the Middle West to a long-suffering "weed" public.

Lorbeer saw visions of wealth in the sale of schemes whereby everybody could borrow money and get cured of his tobacco habit as he had "chew." He said he would start out in April.

McCauley induced him, inasmuch as he would be away from home most of the time, to give him a bill of sale of the laundry, so that McCauley could dispose of the plan as he should a good chance along. In case of a sale, he would turn the proceeds over to Lorbeer, of course.

For some reason, however, Lorbeer didn't go on the road as they had planned. The deal was closed on the parties were again in statu quo, save that Lorbeer, having faith in McCauley, had taken the precaution to get back his bill of sale. And Lorbeer has a receipt for about $4000 worth of tobacco.

Then McCauley started a new scheme. In July he represented that he was the principal stockholder in the Keystone Remedy Company, and that he would give Lorbeer for his laundry $20,000, the capital stock of the company, and make him general manager of the firm to accept which position he would have to move to Chicago. Either that proposition at a year's option or McCauley would give him $4500 for his laundry plant.

Lorbeer liked the clamor of the management of the supposedly big remedy company, but for some reason didn't accept, and by December this deal, too, was called off.

Then McCauley said he had found a purchaser for the plant in N. Bonifio, a Los Angeles laundry man of reputation, and asked Lorbeer to sign a plan that he was the more adept business man of the two, to have him do all the dickering with the third party. The deal was agreed to, and finally the money, $2500, was paid by Bonifio to McCauley, of which amount Lorbeer was paid $1500.

Lorbeer often struck his financial pal for the balance, but it was never forthcoming. McCauley was brought to Lorbeer, alleging fraud.

McCauley answered with a general denial and also said that he had left Lorbeer $4000 worth of tobacco cure, which was never paid for, and he thought the whole thing was over.

The court, after hearing the evidence and a deal of argument, gave Lorbeer a judgment.

OLD MAN'S INJURIES.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES TRIED.

W. C. Ross, who lives at No. 1348 Georgia street, has a grievance, and a sore side. He believes both were due to the alleged negligence of the person in the employ of A. Zellerbach & Sons, paper dealers, on North Main street.

Yesterday Ross was in court after $5000 damages. He told his story of personal injury to Judge Allen.

It is about a peculiar accident. The rear end of the Zellerbach headquarters abuts on New High street, where the firm operates a basement elevator to store away its supplies.

On November 1, 1934, the iron doors that are ordinarily shut down over the shaft were open to receive merchandise from the freight depot by William Corbett, regularly employed on one of the firm's wagons.

Corbett had just driven up with a load of paper, as Ross, who is a man of middle years, was passing.

Ross says it's routine on the wagon were piled on very recklessly and liable at any time to be kicked off.

And that's just what happened. As Corbett was backing the wagon against the curb to unload, suddenly the hind wheels struck Ross as he passed and banged him up against one of the iron doors, causing him some pains.

He was hit in the head and his hip hurt. He says he was laid up for three months by reason of the accident and consigned to pay $75 in doctor's bills.

The court was asked to give him judgment for $5000. The cause was submitted.

CONFIDENCE MAN.

SAM KUTZ'S EXPERIENCE.

A curious specimen of the genus hobo dropped into Sam Kutz's department of the County Clerk's office yesterday and asked to be shown the Great Register.

Mr. Kutz didn't look as if he had ever read it, and he said he would take a bath, to say nothing of voting, and Sammy had his curiosity aroused. So dirty and seedy was the applicant that at that moment, you might expect him to sneeze.

Sammy asked him questions. "Was there any particular name you wanted to find?" he queried.

"I don't know," said the man, nervously. "Well, the Great Register is locked up. We have only the precinct registers on the street level, and they are not so good as the main ones. Which one?" asked the deputy.

"This was too much for the stranger hobo. 'Oh, my one,' he finally answered. 'Sammy was also in perplexity, when suddenly the man about to sprout said yes, on the street level, was the one.' 'On which side of Main?' asked the deputy.

"On the north side," was the prompt reply, but it was a poor guess. "The street runs north and south," announced the deputy. "I'll give you one on the east side of Main. They are numbered from one to forty."

"I'll give you one on the east side of Main," said the applicant.

APPLES.

Fifty-pound box eating apples, No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

felting a burst of inspiration. "That's over on the East Side," replied Sammy, quickly.

"Oh," and the inspired hobo wilted. But the clerk gave him a register containing names of citizens who lived between Sixth and Seventh. He stood for several minutes jotting down names and addresses, and then he said, "Sammy believes the fellow is hunting up 'oil' acquaintances."

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CRUEL HUSBAND. Louise Cary was divorced from Honore Cary by Judge Fitzgerald yesterday on the grounds of cruelty. The parties live in Redondo.

JOYCE'S FLEA. George Joyce, against whom have been filed four informations charging him with passing fictitious checks, entered a plea of not guilty yesterday in the criminal court, and his trials were set for January 2, 3, 7 and 8. The first charge on which Joyce will be tried accuses him of passing a check for $1000 to the Bank of Los Angeles, and one S. M. Graham, with an alleged fictitious check, signed by William Haines, for $1.

HEFFNER'S TRIAL. The trial of James Heffner, who is accused of assisting in the robbery of the Arizona miner down in the Tenderloin last October, has been set down for January 10, at 10 o'clock, and will be held in the Police Court, Judge Smith to give him a new trial.

COKE FAILED. John H. Cox, the real estate agent charged with the sale of a house on the corner of Main and Broadway, was before Judge Smith Monday on habeas corpus proceedings. "I don't know what that meant," said the defendant, "I went around to find out."

Although no longer the wife of Haddock, she has been in the habit of going around to see the children. When they were divorced, the Superior Court a few years ago, the children were awarded to her, but she afterward gave them back to her ex-husband.

Haddock claims that she has driven him and his new family all over town by her actions. Since the divorce they have both remarried. The former Mrs. Haddock is now Mrs. Fuller.

Haddock, who lives at No. 1285 East Twenty-eighth street, Day before yesterday morning, Mrs. Fuller called before the Haddocks were up. Mrs. Haddock, sent one of the children to the school, and the other to the playground. At 3:30 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Fuller was determined to probe the terrible matter to the bottom-most depths. She went around to the kitchen door. "What happened then," said Haddock, "I could not say. I only know that I heard Mrs. Fuller say to my wife that she would smash her dirty mouth."

Whereat Mrs. Haddock threw something on and rushed wildly to the rescue. As he stepped gallantly between them, Haddock says his ex-wife made him, hostile moment toward her shirt waist.

"Touch me, if you dare," she said; "I would not let you touch me."

Mrs. Haddock says that the lady told her to stop, and she said, "I would not let you touch me."

"I asked this woman," she said, "what she meant by her mental character and my disgracing her in the street, and she said she would smash her own character."

"Why did you go there at all?" asked the court.

"Well," she said, "I wanted to find out what he meant by mental character. I wanted to see if he was gentle, and she was lady enough to explain."

"That man," she said, pointing the finger at Haddock, "was a brute, and he was a brute to me, too. And she included the blue choker in the indictment."

Justice Austin fined her $20, but suspended sentence during good behavior. And it all ended in a flood of tears.

TRAMPING WITH TRAMPS.

Yesterday was hobo day in the Police Court. A number of them were disposed of.

One man was an old railroad. He had come to make his claim on a box car at the railroad yards.

He said his name is Harry North. He started out to ride across the country with his brother, at Cheyenne, his brother got the war fever and enlisted in the army. He has been tramping around the country and riding brake beams. He travels with a faithful white dog named Pagen.

He said he was a tramp, and he was allowed to go on a float yesterday. As North was leaving the court-room, he slipped over to the criminal box and gave his bunkie enough tobacco to make a cigarette.

POLICE.

Eugene Patterson, a newboy who just got out of jail, the other day, by being acquitted of the charge of grand larceny, is back again. He was arrested yesterday by a boy named Howard, who was over to the streets, annoying an old man on the street.

Lopez, a Mexican tamale vendor, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 for being drunk the other day. In the exuberance of his spree, he smashed the furniture in a hotel house where he stays.

A. M. Rex, in fact, overall, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday on charge of begging on the streets. "I have given away much," said Rex grandly, "but I never got a cent from any of the people I knew them." He will be tried today.

Yetta Freidenberg was fined $10 in the Police Court yesterday for disturbing the peace of the city. She lives in the same house which, like most hobo's, is not big enough for two women. Mrs. Harbard lives upstairs and Mrs. Freidenberg downstairs. Mrs. Harbard came down on the front porch for something and they quarreled. Mrs. Freidenberg enlivened the proceedings by throwing a cup of water on Mrs. Harbard.

Charles Murphy, the hobo, who tried to demolish the police force while on the way to jail day before yesterday, was sentenced by Justice Austin yesterday to serve six months in jail for petty larceny.

Sidney Hill, the little colored boy convicted of stealing skates, was sentenced to serve 150 days.

Harry O'Neal, the little man taken up as a drunk, had a defense all day for getting out of the touch of a match, and he was released before Justice Austin yesterday. "If you please, Your Honor," he began suddenly, "I have a few drinks makes me full, and I hurt my hand working for me, and I can't pronounce his name."

Said the Court, "Two dollars."

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Los Angeles Ethel.

A meeting of the literature section of the Ethel Society was held yesterday morning. Mrs. Williamson Dunn, curator, presiding, Addison, Swift and Steele formed the subject of the hour's study.

Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald gave a sketch of the life of Steele. Mrs. Campbell spoke on Swift's character and work, and more particularly on "Gulliver's Travels." Miss E. L. Hobbs reviewed Addison's essays on "The Attempts of Man to Get Rid of His Burden," and "The Dissection of Beau's Head," and a Coquette's Heart. Mrs. Haddock gave a review of "Pepp's Diary."

The social-development section held an extra meeting directly following that of the literature section. Miss C. M. White read a paper on "The Influence of the Daily Newspaper," and a discussion followed. Miss Williams claimed that the newspaper is the great school of the people; that the information it contains of the world's history and the world's work gradually filters through the public mind, broadening the general outlook and enlarging ideas. To understand that this is so, one has only to consider what many are dependent for their daily basis. There are just two methods by which they can do this. Either the management can turn the lecture courses into a sort of vaudeville entertainment to attract the masses, diluting and adulterating the intellectual food with anything that will increase the circulation, or they can elect to give the public the best it will turn out to receive, and make the program sufficiently popular to insure a paying audience. These two courses represent just about the actual difference between the yellow Journal and the reputable University of the West. The newspaper is self-respecting and aims at as good a standard as the public will pay for."

[POLICE AND JUSTICE COURTS.]

OLD LOVE AND NEW IN A HATE FEUD.

A TWICE-MARRIED MAN WITH TROUBLE TO SPARE.

Frank D. Haddock's Wife That Was and His Wife That is Have a Little Fracas and Get into the Police Court.

Between the old love and the new love, Frank D. Haddock, a newspaper writer, had to appeal to the courts for protection.

His former wife, Justina, now on the retired list by reason of divorce, was brought before Justice Austin yesterday to answer to a charge of disturbing the peace of Elizabeth H., Mr. Haddock's present wife.

Mrs. Haddock No. 2 wears a blue hat and a blue choker and a plaided blue skirt. She told her predecessor in interest that she needn't come around any more unless she acted like a respectable lady. The lady who was the first Mrs. Haddock wears a black skirt and a black choker and a black hat, made answer: "I'll smash your face."

His police officer, in alarm, invoked the assistance of the law.

The immediate cause of the outbreak was the former Mrs. Haddock's suspicions that she "was being talked down" by her husband's new wife.

Had said that she had disgraced his mental character.

"I didn't know what that meant," said the officer against the peace of the Haddock household, "so I went around to find out."

Although no longer the wife of Haddock, she has been in the habit of going around to see the children. When they were divorced, the Superior Court a few years ago, the children were awarded to her, but she afterward gave them back to her ex-husband.

Haddock claims that she has driven him and his new family all over town by her actions. Since the divorce they have both remarried. The former Mrs. Haddock is now Mrs. Fuller.

Haddock, who lives at No. 1285 East Twenty-eighth street, Day before yesterday morning, Mrs. Fuller called before the Haddocks were up. Mrs. Haddock, sent one of the children to the school, and the other to the playground. At 3:30 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Fuller was determined to probe the terrible matter to the bottom-most depths. She went around to the kitchen door.

"What happened then," said Haddock, "I could not say. I only know that I heard Mrs. Fuller say to my wife that she would smash her dirty mouth."

Whereat Mrs. Haddock threw something on and rushed wildly to the rescue. As he stepped gallantly between them, Haddock says his ex-wife made him, hostile moment toward her shirt waist.

"Touch me, if you dare," she said; "I would not let you touch me."

Mrs. Haddock says that the lady told her to stop, and she said, "I would not let you touch me."

"I asked this woman," she said, "what she meant by her mental character and my disgracing her in the street, and she said she would smash her own character."

"Why did you go there at all?" asked the court.

"Well," she said, "I wanted to find out what he meant by mental character. I wanted to see if he was gentle, and she was lady enough to explain."

"That man," she said, pointing the finger at Haddock, "was a brute, and he was a brute to me, too. And she included the blue choker in the indictment."

Justice Austin fined her $20, but suspended sentence during good behavior. And it all ended in a flood of tears.

TRAMPING WITH TRAMPS.

Yesterday was hobo day in the Police Court. A number of them were disposed of.

One man was an old railroad. He had come to make his claim on a box car at the railroad yards.

He said his name is Harry North. He started out to ride across the country with his brother, at Cheyenne, his brother got the war fever and enlisted in the army. He has been tramping around the country and riding brake beams. He travels with a faithful white dog named Pagen.

He said he was a tramp, and he was allowed to go on a float yesterday. As North was leaving the court-room, he slipped over to the criminal box and gave his bunkie enough tobacco to make a cigarette.

POLICE.

Eugene Patterson, a newboy who just got out of jail, the other day, by being acquitted of the charge of grand larceny, is back again. He was arrested yesterday by a boy named Howard, who was over to the streets, annoying an old man on the street.

Lopez, a Mexican tamale vendor, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 for being drunk the other day. In the exuberance of his spree, he smashed the furniture in a hotel house where he stays.

A. M. Rex, in fact, overall, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday on charge of begging on the streets. "I have given away much," said Rex grandly, "but I never got a cent from any of the people I knew them." He will be tried today.

Yetta Freidenberg was fined $10 in the Police Court yesterday for disturbing the peace of the city. She lives in the same house which, like most hobo's, is not big enough for two women. Mrs. Harbard lives upstairs and Mrs. Freidenberg downstairs. Mrs. Harbard came down on the front porch for something and they quarreled. Mrs. Freidenberg enlivened the proceedings by throwing a cup of water on Mrs. Harbard.

Charles Murphy, the hobo, who tried to demolish the police force while on the way to jail day before yesterday, was sentenced by Justice Austin yesterday to serve six months in jail for petty larceny.

Sidney Hill, the little colored boy convicted of stealing skates, was sentenced to serve 150 days.

Harry O'Neal, the little man taken up as a drunk, had a defense all day for getting out of the touch of a match, and he was released before Justice Austin yesterday. "If you please, Your Honor," he began suddenly, "I have a few drinks makes me full, and I hurt my hand working for me, and I can't pronounce his name."

Said the Court, "Two dollars."

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Los Angeles Ethel.

denly, "Just a few drinks makes me full, and I hurt my hand working for me, and I can't pronounce his name."

Said the Court, "Two dollars."

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Los Angeles Ethel.

A meeting of the literature section of the Ethel Society was held yesterday morning. Mrs. Williamson Dunn, curator, presiding, Addison, Swift and Steele formed the subject of the hour's study.

Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald gave a sketch of the life of Steele. Mrs. Campbell spoke on Swift's character and work, and more particularly on "Gulliver's Travels." Miss E. L. Hobbs reviewed Addison's essays on "The Attempts of Man to Get Rid of His Burden," and "The Dissection of Beau's Head," and a Coquette's Heart. Mrs. Haddock gave a review of "Pepp's Diary."

The social-development section held an extra meeting directly following that of the literature section. Miss C. M. White read a paper on "The Influence of the Daily Newspaper," and a discussion followed. Miss welfare of his children by a special grant of £36,000 a year, which comes to him in quarterly instalments of £9,000. So that the public income of the Prince is £136,000 a year. That is what it is worth to be Prince of Wales.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

AT THE THEATERS.

LOS ANGELES—The 10th's Eve. BURBANK—A. J. Thompson in "The 10th's Eve." VAN Nuys—Van Nuys.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Fire Without Heat.

There is a delicacy of discrimination in the manager of a Spring-street restaurant who advertises on his bulletin board: "Belgian Meat Pie." Belgian here is not a nationality but a suggestion of unobtrusive ingredients.

Religious Mass Meeting.

A religious mass meeting will be held at the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday evening, in which many workers interested in the church cause are expected to participate. The provisional Executive Committee of ten will present a report and further preparations made for the campaign.

School Savings Bank.

Owing to delay in the preparation of the circular explaining the savings-bank system which has been adopted for the public schools, the first collection will not be taken in the schools until next Wednesday and Thursday, instead of Monday. The circular will be distributed among the pupils Monday or Tuesday.

Signal Corps "Smoker."

The members of the Signal Corps entertained their friends last night with an impromptu stag party at the El Comodoro. The affair was entirely informal in character, and the program was made up of short speeches, singing, dramatic sketches by several members of the corps, and a "smoker." The refreshments consisted of a barrel of

En Route to Manila.

A party of eighteen United States marines passed through the city yesterday en route from the Brooklyn navy yard to Manila, P. I. They were recruited in the East for service on the Asiatic station, and will sail for Manila on one of the first transports to leave San Francisco. Another detail of forty-six men are on the way here from New York and are due Saturday.

Boy Burglar.

A burglary charge was lodged at the Police Station last night against Willie Kravitz, aged 11 years, of No. 210 North Main street, and Calvin Shrimp, aged 17, of No. 16 North Main street. The boys were locked up. It is alleged that the youngsters entered a house in their neighborhood yesterday and stole an old revolver, a knife, a brass ring and other small articles. The younger boy seemed to glory in his evil-doing, describing it with profane blasphemy.

Boys A Ride.

A rancher named Powers left his team standing unattended near Washington and Main streets yesterday morning, and when he returned from a neighboring saloon he could not find the horses and wagon. He made a great outcry about his loss, and was about to report the matter to the police when a small boy told him that several wranglers had driven off with his team. He found his wagon and horses at Central avenue and Washington streets an hour later.

Jaquez on an Unknown.

An inquiry was held yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the undertaker's establishment of John R. Paul, No. 421 Downey avenue, on the body of the unknown man who was found in the Tropico hills on Wednesday. The man had been dead for at least a month, and his remains were in such condition that identification was impossible. The coroner's jury was unable to learn anything of the deceased, and rendered a verdict accordingly. The corpse was interred yesterday in the potter's field.

Hung by a Ring.

While cleaning the woodwork in a parlor car at River Station yesterday afternoon, Mrs. H. Belger, No. 528 Bernard street, met with a peculiar mishap. She was working about an upper berth when she slipped and fell. In trying to save herself she seized hold of a hook in such a way that a finger ring she was wearing became caught in the hook and she was suspended in midair for some time, hanging by the ring. Her finger was badly cut, and she was taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment.

Not Helping Passel.

Councilman George Passel, the "high-fiver," who was defeated for reelection, may after all fail to be elevated in triumph to the position of assessor under the Snyder administration. Two petitions were presented yesterday to the Mayor-elect, asking for the appointment of John Turney, one was signed by a number of irrigators in the Vernon district, and the other by a number of business men. They were presented to Mr. Snyder at a meeting of irrigators held in the office of W. H. Workman.

BREVITIES.

By special request, Mrs. Ira O. Smith will repeat her talk on "Personal Impressions of the Passion Play of 1909" at Edell Hall, 724 South Broadway, December 10, at 8 p.m., under the auspices of the Civic Committee of the Chell. Benefit of free baths of Bethlehem Institutional Church. Tickets for sale at Fitzgerald's.

Although The Times business office is open day and night, year in and year out, it is not possible to bring your ads in. You can telephone them in at any hour of the day or night at the standard "litter" rate, 1 cent per word per insertion.

The bazaar of the Independent Church of Christ will be held today and tomorrow at No. 320 West Fourth street. Lunch will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and a musical program and light refreshments will be the order of the evening.

Native jewelry. Fine line of opals, turquoise, Arizona rubies, in pins and rings, at lowest prices. Campbell's Curio Store, 235 S. Spring st.

Home-cooked lunch today, 320 West Fourth street, bazaar of the Guild of the Independent Church of Christ, 11 to 2:30 p.m. 25 cents.

Beware of imitations in carved leather. Only first-class carving at Campbell's Curio Store, 235 S. Spring st.

For time of arrival and departure of Santa Fe trains, see "Time Card" in today's Times.

The Times Job Office is equipped to do machine composition, 13 ems. at above notice.

Forty stamp photos only 25 cents. "Sunbeam," 235 South Main st. Bargains in suit cases this week. D. D. Whitney & Sons, 423 S. Spring.

Whitney's trunk factory, 235 S. Main Dr. Minnie Wells, 127 E. 3d. See card.

Furs remodeled. D. Bonoff, 247 S. B'way.

The Central W.C.T.U. will meet at Temperance Temple today at 3:30 p.m. and will be addressed by Rev. C. C. Pierce on "Christian Citizenship."

A well-attended meeting of the Los Angeles W.C.T.U. was held yesterday afternoon at the First Methodist Church. The principal speaker was Mrs. Lucy Blanchard, who read a paper on "Christmas Giving."

FRENCH ACCORDION FLAUTINO. Dues at home and leading club in suit house in the city. No. 119 South Spring street.

PERSONAL.

Robert A. McCauley of Denver is a guest at the Natick. C. C. Scott and wife of Grump, Tex., are guests at the Natick. Mrs. Lizzie Shaw and family of Seattle are guests at the Ramona. Aubrey de Wolf and ten others of the Boston Lyric Company are at the Ramona.

W. H. Raymond of Belmont Park, Mont., registered at the Van Nuys yesterday.

Will R. Knox and wife of Chicago took apartments at the Van Nuys yesterday.

Hy Hallam and wife of the Boston Lyric Opera Company are at the Hollenbeck.

W. C. Marburger and family of Seattle have taken apartments at the Natick.

O. B. McCarty is an excursion agent at the Natick. He registers from Amity, O.

H. S. Wallace and wife of Roseland, British Columbia, are staying at the Hollenbeck.

K. Hiyama, a prominent Jap, registered yesterday at the Natick from Tokyo, Japan.

D. S. Spence and M. Spence and son of Salt Lake registered yesterday at the Hollenbeck.

Carlson C. Crane and W. M. Cline, two railroad men of San Francisco, are at the Natick.

J. H. Waters, wife and three children of Colorado arrived yesterday at the Hollenbeck.

Mrs. J. T. Harris of Salt Lake were among yesterday's arrivals at the Van Nuys.

J. H. Hillerman and wife of Paterson, N. J., are tourists who yesterday registered at the Natick.

W. D. Sanborn, representing the Burlington route at San Francisco, is a guest at the Westminister.

W. E. Hutchason, wife and son and Mrs. O. J. Eoff of St. Joseph, Mo., are tourists staying at the Natick.

M. T. Barwood and wife of Strawberry Point, Iowa, are among yesterday's arriving tourists at the Westminister.

Magaret E. Carroll, Mrs. M. S. O'Garra and Jennie F. O'Garra of Worcester, Mass., are tourists arriving at the Ramona yesterday.

W. F. E. Hotchkiss of Redlands is at the Ramona. She is the wife of the secretary of the Bear Valley Water Company.

G. W. Scott, C. T. Elise and Z. S. Cather, three prominent San Franciscans, are traveling in company and are guests at the Westminister.

Mrs. G. E. Preble, Mrs. W. L. Adams and Miss Adams of Tucson and Mrs. M. B. Manning and Miss Manning of Santa Barbara formed a party at the Hollenbeck yesterday.

METHODIST MISSION BAZAAR. The Young Ladies' Mission of the University Methodist Church held a very successful bazaar yesterday on West Jefferson street, realizing a sum for their work. The Sunday-school room of the church, which was used for the occasion, was prettily decorated with streamers of smilax, lilies and carnations. The large room was thronged with people all evening. The candy booth, where various sweets were sold, was in charge of Mrs. George Murdoch, assisted by Miss Emma Ballard, Laura Williams, Della Bates and Ella Edmonston. The fancy-work booth was managed by Mrs. Charles Brown, Royal Christ and the Misses Ruth Brown and Frances Thompson. During the evening a chicken supper was served in the basement of the church and a short musical program was given.

NABING BOTHERSOME BUMS. The police have decided to use stringent methods to rid the city of the hordes of tramps who are daily flocking to the city. Petty thieving is increasing at an alarming rate and most of the wrong doings are charged to the hobo class. The tramps who infest the city streets, by day immediately demanding alms from pedestrians, and at night gathering in low groceries to drink up their easily-acquired money, have become especially bothersome. Henceforth all such characters will be arrested on sight. Between 5 and 10 o'clock last evening the theft of innumerable small articles were reported at the Police Station. Following instructions issued earlier in the day the downtown patrolmen arrested almost a score of drunken beggars and tramps and sent them to the City Jail.

DEATH RECORD. The funeral services of Miss Ella Cross, beloved daughter of Philip and Lillian Cross, will be held at St. Joseph's church, Los Angeles, today at 2 a.m. Friends invited.

MACCABEES, ATTENTION! All members of Los Angeles Tent, No. 2 Knights of the Maccabees, and visiting Sir Knights are requested to meet at the tent room, No. 124 West First street, Friday, December 14, at 8 p.m. Friends invited.

THE LADY UNDERTAKER. Mrs. M. H. Connel is the only lady undertaker practicing in Los Angeles at present. Or. Edith C. 467 S. Broadway.

VINE LUNCH TODAY 25 CENTS. The pulpit of the Independent Church of Christ holds a bazaar at No. 320 West Fourth street today and tomorrow. A fine home-cooked lunch will be served from 11 to 2 o'clock on both days. In the evening, tamales, tea and coffee, and ice-cream and cake will be served. There will be a musical program to-night, and tomorrow night a grand auction, which will be an event worth coming to see.

FREEZE BROS. CO. UNDERTAKERS. In accordance with our custom for years, we have in our employ a competent lady assistant who takes charge of the remains of all ladies. Or. Edith C. 467 S. Broadway and Sixth street. Tel. main 26.

GET IT AT DEAN'S.

You Remember How It Was Last Christmas.....

Many of you put off buying presents until the eleventh hour. The result was that many of our handsomest and most desirable articles were sold and you had to take what was left, what some other person did not want. Wisdom suggests that you should profit by past experience. Make your selections early—NOW—when our stock is at its best, and when we can give you more attention than we can later on. Our stock is larger and better than ever, and includes everything father, mother, sister, brother, sweetheart, husband, wife, boy, girl or yourself would like, and the prices are quite right. COME AND SEE—

WE GIVE TRADING STAMPS.

DEAN'S DRUG STORE, SECOND AND SPRING STS.

Open Every Day from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m.

Only a Short Time Remains

In which to enjoy the advantage of buying the Piloni wines and liquors at about half their former price. Stock up now for the holidays.

Leave your Order Today the goods to be delivered as you may direct.

Sale Closes Dec. 15th.

Special Wine Co.
230 W. FOURTH ST.
TEL. M. 332

Warner's Safe

Cure 85c

Wolf & Chilson, Prescription Druggists
Second and Broadway.

Magnin & Co.
281 S. BROADWAY.

Dainty Apparel
Makes Dainty Gifts

And there's none so dainty in fit and quality as the kind made in the Magnin store. For the little one, for the miss, and for my lady's wardrobe—everything that's dainty in apparel.

THE GIFT STORE

Send Your Eastern Friends

Some of our exquisite Mexican hand-carved leather novelties for Christmas. The biggest and best stock in the city. Something suitable for everyone.

50c to $5.00.

SANBORN VAIL & CO.
357 39 BROADWAY

Only Takes Twelve Hours.

A cold that would probably hang on for a month or two can be cured in twelve hours by day immediately demanding alms from pedestrians, and at night gathering in low groceries to drink up their easily-acquired money, have become especially bothersome. Henceforth all such characters will be arrested on sight. Between 5 and 10 o'clock last evening the theft of innumerable small articles were reported at the Police Station. Following instructions issued earlier in the day the downtown patrolmen arrested almost a score of drunken beggars and tramps and sent them to the City Jail.

Can it Be Cured?

We mean that cough. If anything on earth will do it.

Abel's White Pine Balsam

Is the thing. It is good.

All Druggists, 25c, 50c, $1.

BARBER SUPPLIES

Shoes gridding in clip. Jordan's and Henkle's.

Cutlery, Safety Razors.

JOS. JAEGER, 200-202 S. Main St.

Her's Pure Malt Whisky

FOR GENTLE FOLK

PALMISTRY

Virtual Reading $1.00
Lessons in $1.00
Sittings are invited.

Prof. A. Fyler, Manila, 6th and Spring

FOR FRYING, USE WESBON COOKING OIL.

INDIVIDUAL WHIST CONTEST.

The contest for individual scores at the rooms of the Los Angeles Whist Club closed Wednesday evening. F. L. Lottus winning the American Whist League button. The plus scores were as follows: F. L. Lottus, 294; Mrs. James Ford, 144; J. W. Hendrick, 144; Joseph L. Merrill, 14; H. C. O'Connor, 64; James Ford, 64; Mrs. A. W. Morris, 44; Mrs. F. L. Lottus, 14; Mrs. S. C. Baxter, 4; S. C. Baxter, 4.

GET IT AT DEAN'S.

You Remember How It Was Last Christmas.....

Many of you put off buying presents until the eleventh hour.

WE GIVE TRADING STAMPS.

DEAN'S DRUG STORE,

SECOND AND SPRING STS.

Open Every Day from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m.

BAZAAR A. Hamburger & Sons BAZAAR

Opens Tomorrow. 127 to 145 N. Spring St. Los Angeles. Opens Tomorrow.

Wonderful Glove Bargains.

We occupy a unique position in the glove market. We are the largest importers on the Pacific Coast. It is said that our glove sales are greater than those of any store in San Francisco, and that they are as great as any three in Los Angeles. Because we are such immense handlers of kid gloves we can occasionally offer bargains like these without resorting to the handling of second-hand or inferior goods. We have just received an immense new assortment of gloves for Christmas trade. They are desirable in every particular, but by increasing quantity we were able to lower prices, and we can sell gloves at two-thirds, one-half and one-third of their regular values. Still better than this, we will guarantee every pair against manufacturer's imperfections.

You Will Find Kid Gloves for 50c, and they are made of real kid. They come in black, white and a variety of colors, but the sizes range from 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 only. That is why we can sell them at a third their values. Two clasp suede and glass finished gloves, "Ascot," "Zarins" and "Marcellis" brands, which sell regularly for $1.50 a pair. If you wear a small size you can get a pair of these for 50c.

$1.50 Kid Gloves for 65c.

These are the celebrated "Anson" gloves, which sell regularly for $1.50. They come in white only. They are finished with two-clasp and come in all finger lengths. Fully warranted, for 65c.

Pique Kid Gloves for 89c.

These are regular $1.25 and $1.50 qualities. French pique gloves in black, brown, tan, medium red and gray. Please do not confuse these gloves with the half pique gloves which are sold for full price. These are genuine full pique gloves, are guaranteed and styled. Various styles of embroidery; 89c a pair.

4 Special Wrappers.

The incidents of the apparel sale are almost past belief. You will hardly think it possible that we can sell wrappers at these prices:

10 dozens of these lined wrappers made with princess back; collar and belt trimmed with finishing braid; as good as new; 49c

10 dozens of these lined wrappers made with princess back; collar and belt trimmed with finishing braid; as good as new; 49c

10 dozens of these lined wrappers made with princess back; collar and belt trimmed with finishing braid; as good as new; 49c

10 dozens of these lined wrappers made with princess back; collar and belt trimmed with finishing braid; as good as new; 49c

Eiderdown Sacks.

It is as wonderful for us to be able to save you 25c on an eiderdown garment as it is for us to save you $4.00 on a $10.00 jacket. Eiderdowns are so staple all the year round that it is seldom a reduction is made in the prices. During this sale we offer:

Eiderdown bolero jackets made of all wool cloth crocheted around the edge; very serviceable in this climate; 29c

Eiderdown bolero jackets made of all wool cloth crocheted around the edge; very serviceable in this climate; 29c

Eiderdown bolero jackets made of all wool cloth crocheted around the edge; very serviceable in this climate; 29c

Eiderdown bolero jackets made of all wool cloth crocheted around the edge; very serviceable in this climate; 29c

Cashmere Wrappers.

While East our buyer secured a complete line of cashmere wrappers ranging in price from $7.50 to $20.00. There are few alike, but they are all elegantly trimmed with laces, ribbons, etc.

We have sorted them into 4 lots, which are priced at half, viz., $3.98, $4.98, $6.95 and $10.00

Men's Heavy Vests

Underwear undergarments of a quality which we sell regularly at $1.50 a garment. This is a most satisfactory quality in every respect. Shirts and drawers on sale at..... 98c

Men's Heavy Vests

Underwear undergarments of a quality which we sell regularly at $1.50 a garment. This is a most satisfactory quality in every respect. Shirts and drawers on sale at..... 98c

SUGGESTIONS FROM London BOYS' DEPARTMENT

The illustration shows the many Boys' needs that may best be filled at this store, because our varieties are the largest and our prices the lowest consistent with good value.

It explains why we sell so many useful Christmas gifts for the boys.

If it comes from the London you may be sure that it is good.

It's not what you pay, it's what you get for what you pay.

117 to 125 N. Spring. HARRIS & FRANK, Props.

AUTOMOBILES

Carload to Arrive Dec. 4th.

Hawley, King & Co.

Pear's

Is the cheapest and best toilet soap in all the world.

GAS AND ELECTRIC FIXTURES

Large assortment and right prices. Call

Z. L. PARMELEE, 324 S. Spring

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S Liver Pills

Cure Constipation and Bile Headache, resulting from Female Ills.

25 Cents. All Druggists.

American Dye Works

Oldest established and reliable. Main office, 219 1/2 S. Spring Street. Tel. M. 90.

THEATERS—

OS ANGELES THE

MATINEE TODAY

GOLLA MARINI

TONIGHT—"THE FENCING

SUNDAY NIGHT—Farewell

Seats now on sale. Prices—25c

OS ANGELES THE

ENTIRE WEEK

WITH REGULAR

The Theatrical Event of the Season

After and Los Angeles Favorite.

FREDERICK

AND

CLARENCE M. I

RICHIE

The Duke's Jes

Monday Night and

Matinee

OTHELLO

PRICES—$1.50, $1.75, 50c, 25c

OROSCO'S BURBA

The curtain will

Matinee Today, and Tonight

Commencing tomorrow

The Popular English Actor MR. W. A.

Celebrated

Domestic Play

SUPPORTED BY

RPHEUM—TONIGHT—

Stelling and Revel

McGregor, Wm. J. Hy

Hattie Belle Ladd and

Prices Never Change—50c, 25c,

any seat 25c. Phone Main 1447.

MUSEMENTS AND ENT

WITH R

STRICH FARM—SO

The most appropriate California Christmas

WITH FEATHER BOAL. Free

BASEBALL—Washing

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Opening

AL LEVY'S

Admission 25c. Grand Stand 25c

VELODROME RACES

Ten Races, including Two Main

and Turville vs. Stone and Judge

—Lobs vs. Hoffman, East vs. J

BASEBALL—Fiesta Par

SUPERB ROUTES OF TRA

THE—

Santa

to

Chicago

SANTA CATALINA IS

Three and one

Holds the V

Reel Fishing

A glimpse through the glass bottom b

will reveal an ocean of living fish.

Glass tank exhibition of living fish.

Daily steamer service except Fridays

Eastern Pacific and Terminal Lines, respectively. Fare, round trip $2.75;

steamers allow 25c hours on the island;

Telephone Main 36. BARKING CO.